- other Shariah compliant transferable securities including, without limitation, notes, Sukuk or other similar products issued by either corporate or sovereign entities;
- units in Shariah compliant collective investment schemes including units in schemes managed or operated by the Fund Manager (provided there is no doubling of charges as a result); and
- Cash or Shariah compliant cash equivalent investments including non-interest bearing cash. The investor may redeem its shares in the Fund on each business day in the UAE which is followed by a Luxembourg business day.

The Directors intend to distribute all or substantially all of the net income (profit and dividends, less expenses) attributable to the Class X share of the ADCB Islamic GCC Equity Fund.

Recommendation: this Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw money within 2 years.

Risk and reward profile

This indicator is based on simulated historical data which may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of such class.

The investment manager believes that this indicator reflects the higher risk of investing in companies in the Arabian Markets versus other more developed markets.

The categorisation of the class in the scale is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

The following risks might not be fully captured by the above risk indicator:

- Operational risk: political, legal and operational systems may be less developed and hence more risky in emerging markets;
- Liquidity risk: there may be a smaller number of buyers or sellers of the underlying securities and this may affect the price at which these securities can be sold;
- Counterparty risk: the Fund relies on other parties to fulfil certain investments or transactions, should these parties become insolvent, this will affect the value of the Fund;
- Interest rate risk: the Fund may invest in Shariah compliant fixed income instruments which will generally increase in value when interest rates fall and decrease in value when interest rates rise.
